2018 Tournament of Bands Competition at Egg Harbor Township High School

Saturday September 29, 2018

Egg Harbor Township High School will be hosting a Tournament of Bands Marching Band Competition Saturday, September 29, 2018. This exciting event will consist of over 15 competitive High School Marching Bands from all over South Jersey as well as hundreds of their supporters. We will be producing an advertisement/program book for the attendees and spectators and would like to ask for your support by purchasing an ad. This valued marketing opportunity affords your business excellent exposure to the community and supports the fundraising of our talented Silver Eagle musicians and color guard performers. We thank you for your generous contribution and look forward to an exhilarating competition!
